

Cllr James Mallinder

Chair of ESC Environment Task Group and Cabinet Member for the Environment

Some of the sites in East Suffolk benefitting from the more sympathetic approach to encourage biodiversity adopted in summer 2020

Riduna Park

The Melton home of one of East Suffolk Council's two office headquarters is undergoing greening to better accommodate biodiversity

Seeding new wildflower beds to welcome staff, visitors and pollinators alike

Riduna Park

The Melton Home of East Suffolk Council accommodates nest boxes for swifts and other birds, as well as shelters for bees and other insects

