

Date: 19/11/2016

Primary purpose: To recruit potential Wild Days Holiday Leaders and Greeters and extend the local contacts and to help community projects share knowledge and tips on running successful wildlife projects and share knowledge and enthusiasm on particular key species to support.

Aim for 40 delegates

Additional hoped for benefits: to encourage people to join and support our vital environmental organisations,

Provisional Venue: Orford Sports and Recreational Club, Munday's Lane, next to the school with a large playing field in front.

Provisional outline of day

12:00 - 12:15	Welcome, introduction to the event, purpose and how it fits into CCF and into wider
	Environmental plans of Wildlife organisations—Ben McFarland
12:15—12:30	3 - 5 minute pitches to introduce workshops and walk (Kathy, Debbie, Monika,)
12:30 - 13:00	Signing up for work shops, looking at stalls, networking and refreshments

13:00 - 13:30 Wildlife talk and discussion

Try: Rodney West, Stanny Field Centre, fieldcentre@stannyfarm.org, 07807 440572. (Check number with Cathy) - talk on key species from his view and recent research and support projects.

If not:

Richard Woolnough for a talk on otters: suffolkotters@outlook.com

Simone Bullion for a talk on small mammals: simone.bullion@suffolkwildlifetrust.org

Ali North for a talk on Hedgehogs? Via Suffolk Wildlife Trust as she may not be allowed out of Ipswich.

13:30—14:30 Workshops and Walks set one

Suffolk Coast Greeter Angela Wright to lead walk for up to 6 people chatting about attractions, events, art & culture, shopping & food and drink on the Suffolk Coast with a particular focus on Orford

Wild Adventures on the Suffolk Coast to lead a walk for up to xxx people chatting wildlife, birds and photography

National Trust xxxxxx to lead a walk for up to xxx people talking about Orford Ness

Wild Days Conservation - An hour workshop to share and experience volunteer work party leading techniques

Wildlife Project Planning to Delivery—An hour workshop with case studies Blyth Wood Trust and Shingle Street talking about their approaches and others bringing early day projects or those that have hit barriers to try to find solutions.

14:30—15:30 Workshops and Walks set two (repeat)
15.30 – 4pm Close and networking (Ben McFarland)

