| 3.  | Presentation on Skills  |    |
|  | Judith Mobbs, Assistant Director for Skills gave a presentation on the workforce development strategy – reviewing progress and the next steps. There were four priorities that we had put forward some time ago for workforce development within the overall economic strategy for Sizewell C. There were also some immediate asks of EDF which would be raised with them at the next meeting. Members raised questions and asked for regular updates on Skills to future JLAG meetings.             | JM |
| 4.  | Suffolk Energy Gateway – the case for investment  |    |
|  | Cllr McGregor and Cllr Holdcroft gave members an outline of the case they would be putting to the Minister at their meeting on 21 March.   |    |
| 5.  | Report from New Nuclear Local Authority Group (NNLAG) conference  |    |
|  | Cllr Holdcroft had been elected Chairman of NNLAG at the conference held in Ipswich at the beginning of the month. Delegates from 12 local authorities gathered to discuss common issues relating to the development of new nuclear power stations. Cllr Holdcroft has written to DECC since the conference to raise some points with government. Topic based working groups had been established between local authorities so we could learn from each other.Next meeting – Friday 22 April |    |
