

Alistair MacFarlane

Alistair has had a successful 35 years career in the UK Ports and Transport Industry, with the majority of his Senior Management positions being held within East Anglia.

As well as being a Regional Port Manager and Harbour Master, he also has board experience in both the private and voluntary sectors. He is currently an Independent Board Member at the Great Yarmouth Port Authority.

Given his career background, he is familiar with current port legislation including the Port Good Governance Guidance and Port Marine Safety Code.
